

Human Trafficking & Modern Slavery

Ace Dot services limited (ADS) support the principles of corporate social responsibility and as such operates to the guidelines of ISO 26000. We operate an Integrated Management System formed from the bases of our quality assurance, environmental, health & safety and equalities policies and developing into a total operating system compliant to all relevant legislation including best practice for human rights, forced labour (modern slavery), human trafficking, sustainability, anti-corruption, and community involvement.

The guidance of ISO 26000 focuses on 6 areas of responsibility: Human Rights, Labour Practices, The Environment, Fair Operating Practices, Consumer Issues, Community Involvement & Development.

ADS commits to ensuring that human trafficking and forced labour are not used in any part of the life cycle of our organisation's ability to provide our services. We uphold International Human Rights' standards and offer our employees, customers, suppliers and other stakeholders respect.

With respect to Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, we are committed to vetting all members of our supply chain to ensure that unacceptable practices of forced labour are not utilised and/or involved in the products we procure from each organisation. This information is kept on our server system and reviewed periodically.
